

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

RONNIE L. HOEFLING,

Plaintiff,

v.

ANDREW M. SAUL,
COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

ORDER

20-cv-447-bbc

Plaintiff filed this action for social security benefits on September 10, 2020. I reviewed it in February 2021 and realized that counsel's brief did not match the outlines of the case he had filed. (Although his motion is written in the name Ronnie L. Hoefling, his brief discusses another person entirely.) I wrote to him to give him an opportunity to file a corrected brief. Counsel submitted a brief on February 10, 2021, but it appears to be the identical brief he submitted originally, in which he refers to a plaintiff named Rumsey who has medical problems such as degenerative disc disease, primary osteoarthritis of both knees, major depression and anxiety. The administrative law judge who heard the case described plaintiff Ronnie L. Hoefling as having the severe impairments of obstructive airway disease/chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, coronary artery disease, diabetes, and neuropathy. AR 15.

After reviewing the complaint, defendant's response, and the administrative law judge's opinion, I wrote to plaintiff's counsel on February 1, 2021 to advise him of the mistaken filing and to give him until February 22, 2021 to file an amended brief. He filed a brief on February 10, 2021, but it appears to be identical to the brief he filed in September 2020, which I had told him was inadequate. I interpret counsel's failure to take the opportunity provided him to file a corrected brief as his decision not to pursue any claims on behalf of plaintiff Hoefling. Accordingly, plaintiff's lawsuit will be dismissed without prejudice to plaintiff's bringing the case again, either with new counsel or on her own behalf.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED for plaintiff's counsel's failure to file a brief explaining why plaintiff Ronnie L. Hoefling is entitled to disability insurance benefits.

Entered this 26th day of February, 2021.
